Descripción

These novellas feature an original and charismatic hero called Maqroll, the lookout. Adventurer, sailor, intense and devoted but temporary lover, loyal friend, student of Saint Francis, entrepreneur of dubious schemes - Maqroll's wanderings take him throughout the world.

Mayra Montero (THE LAST NIGHT I SPENT WITH YOU; THE MESSENGER; IN THE PALM OF DARKNESS), Álvaro Mutis (MAQROLL: THREE NOVELLAS), Augusto Monterroso (COMPLETE WORKS AND OTHER STORIES), Julián Ríos (LOVES THAT BIND), and the anti-poet Nicanor Parra. Her translation of Vargas.

10 Apr 2010 . In Gunter Grass's The Flounder: the magical fish leaping out of the surf at the narrator's whistle, "like a fishy newspaper." The epilogue to "Un Bel Morir," part three of Alvaro Mutis's Maqroll: Three Novellas, in which Maqroll drifts down a river on a raft. There are more, but I'll leave it at that for now. 1. The first part of the document is a list of names and titles, including the names of the authors and the titles of the papers. This list is organized in a structured manner, likely serving as a table of contents or a list of references. The names are listed in a vertical column, and the titles are listed in a horizontal row next to them. The text is small and dense, making it difficult to read in detail, but it appears to be a formal list of academic or professional credentials.
