Descripción

Siglo v a. C. La joven democracia ateniense se enfrenta a un terrible desafío. El gigantesco Imperio Persa pretende destruir Atenas y conquistar Grecia. En ese momento decisivo aparecerá un hombre, un genio, un visionario: Temístocles.

Él será el hilo conductor de esta deslumbrante novela que, cimentada en la historia, tiene el aliento de la tragedia y la fuerza de la épica. Desde la carga suicida de los atenienses en Maratón a la batalla de las Termópilas, pasando por la fabulosa ciudad de Babilonia, todos los hilos de la trama desembocan así en la jugada maestra de Temístocles: Salamina, la mayor batalla naval de la Antigüedad y el lugar donde se dirimió el futuro de nuestra civilización.

Javier Negrete recrea este momento irrepetible con un ritmo magistral y dota de vida a un elenco inolvidable de personajes, entre los que destaca Artemisia, reina de Halicarnaso, griega de nacimiento, aliada de los persas y cuyo corazón se convierte también en un campo de batalla inesperado.
