Descripción

Catálogo de la exposición de la escultora catalana celebrada en el Palacio de Velázquez del Retiro, organizada por el Museo Nacional centro de Arte Reina Sofía. Protagonista destacada de la renovación de la escultura española en los años ochenta y con una reconocida proyección internacional (Documenta de Kasel, 1987 y 1992; Bienal de Venecia 1988), Susana Solano (Barcelona, 1946) presenta en Madrid una selección de sesenta y cinco obras que permite trazar una mirada retrospectiva a su trayectoria. Sus primeros trabajos escultóricos datan de 1979, entonces Solano aprende a conjugar las exigencias formales del Minimalismo - las lecciones plásticas de Carl André, Richard Serra y Donald Judd- con alusiones y temas autobiográficos y subjetivos, dando lugar a una escultura que reclama una lectura simbólica y “equivocamente monumental”, en palabras de Teresa Blanch, comisaria de la exposición. En este sentido, compara a Solano con Julio González, pues "comparte con el artista catalán la búsqueda de tensión expresiva entre el interior y el exterior y la creación abstracta de espacios simbólicos”.

22 Jul 2014 . crítica de M^a Ángeles Cabré de la exposición de Susana Solano, Vol Rasant, en la Fundación Suñol.

Susana Solano was born in Barcelona in 1946 and studied at the city's Real acadèmia Catalana de belles arts de San Jorge (now the Reial acadèmia Catalana de belles arts de Sant Jordi). As a child she was exposed to the beauty of her country through frequent visits to a family estate "El Palau" in Falset, as well as Sant.

El Irish Museum of Modern Art (IMMA), de Dublín ha organizado muestras dedicadas a varios artistas contemporáneos españoles como Juan Muñoz, Cristina Iglesias, Juan Uslé, Miquel Barceló o Joan Miró. En esta ocasión, y con la colaboración de AC/E, ha recurrido a la escultora catalana Susana Solana. Una escultura.

Susana Solano had her first solo exhibition at Fundació Joan Miró in 1980, soon becoming one of the seminal references for contemporary sculpture in Spain. Grounded in the everyday, her work explores universal values through a truly unique and personal use of materials and a relationship with space bordering on the.

TECHNICAL: iron. The smell and its character are transformed into rumors of time, and under this inferred sensation the beauty is gradually dissipated: the memory of a confidential moment. Susana Solano.

In in the purely sculptural work of Susana Solano, in the objects created by her that ask to be looked at, it is very rarely possible to imagine the corresponding meaning. Getting back to the idea of furniture, its long history and tradition, we may think that only by crossing that boarder between a work of art and an object with.

It wasn't long ago that Susana Solano first appeared on the scene—one distinctly remembers her canvas hangings exhibited at the Fundació Miró in Barcelona in.
