Descripción

Patsy, una aguerrida, intrépida e irreverente periodista nos narra con apasionamiento sus experiencias como reportera en los terribles años de la guerra interna que sufrió el Perú y que causó miles de muertos en las décadas de los 80 y 90. Nuestro país se desangraba por las acciones de los grupos terroristas y los periodistas de la época se fajaban en las calles para cubrir sus comisiones y llevar la exclusiva a sus canales. Las crónicas y detrás de cámaras de sus historias son narradas de forma coloquial, atrevida y muchas veces hilarante, combinadas con impresionantes experiencias de vida como ser paracaidista a los 15 años y vivir en lugares tan excitantes como el África y Alaska. Lectura obligada para los estudiantes de periodismo.
